FRANK SKINNER ARBORETUM TRAIL

Located at the original nursery of one of Canada's most innovative horticulturists, the Frank Skinner Arboretum Trail highlights some of the nearly 150 plant varieties developed by Dr. Skinner to survive in the harsh prairie environment. Dr. Skinner was well known in his day for his work with lilies, roses, and lilacs, as well as for his developments with trees. Every season brings something different and new to enjoy at the Arboretum. #2 on map.

TRANS CANADA TRAIL (CROCUS TRAIL)

The Trans Canada Trail enters the Inter Parks area near Inglis, winds through the Assiniboia Valley east of Lake of the Prairies, passes through Roblin and San Clara before exiting the province at Madge Lake. The scenic beauty of this trail is enjoyed by hikers, mountain bikers, horseback riders and cross-country skiers. Shown on map.

KEYSTONE PIONEER MUSEUM

Visit three historical buildings: the restored Elschuk House, a designated provincial heritage site, featuring a thatched roof, clay walls and pioneer artifacts; the Dunlop cabin - a pioneer log home; and Makaroff United Church, built in 1910. Demonstrations of a sawmill in operation or bread-making in clay ovens can be arranged. Open May through September. #4 on map.

A FLY-FISHER'S PARADISE

The Inter-Parks area, with its abundance of small streams, rivers, and lakes is recognized as one of the world's best areas for fly-fishing. Catches of brown and rainbow trout measuring up to 30 inches are not uncommon. The area offers a variety of opportunities for lake fly-fishing, such as Goose Lake where fly-fishers from all over the world have made a return trip to this wonderful resource. The fast flowing waters found in the Duck Mountains and Forest provide vigorous challenges for the fly-fisher.
